Provost's Teaching & Learning Summit 2012

Civic Engagement & Student Learning

October 22-26, 2012 • uwosh.edu/cetl/summit

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN OSHKOSH

Provost's Teaching & Learning Summit 2012

Civic Engagement & Student Learning

Register for all Provost's Teaching & Learning Summit events at uwosh.edu/cetl/summit.

Monday, October 22

Opening Reception with Keynote Speaker — Paul Loeb

5 to 7 p.m., Reeve Union Ballroom (227) Students welcome!
Reception and civic engagement poster browsing from 5 to 6 p.m. Provost's welcome and keynote speaker at 6 p.m.

Tuesday, October 23

Global Connections & Civic Engagement Luncheon

11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m., Reeve Union Room 306
Discover how faculty and staff have created powerful learning opportunities. Hear students' remarkable stories of expanded understanding of global challenges and divergent perspectives through projects in Washington, D.C., Nicaragua and Guatemala.
Facilitator: Franca Baricelli, History, Associate Dean, COLS

One Big Learning Community: The Value of Civic Engagement

3 to 4:30 p.m., Reeve Union Ballroom (227) Local non-profit organizations, our teaching community and students describe diverse experiences with community-based learning.
Facilitator: Paul Van Auken, Sociology

Wednesday, October 24

SOTL Scholars Showcase with Luncheon

11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m., Reeve Union Room 306 Six scholars have completed scholarship of teaching and learning investigations this past academic year. Brief presentations by scholars will be followed by poster browsing, conversation and dessert.

Wednesday, October 24

Civic Engagement Connection Extravaganza

2 to 5 p.m., Reeve Union Ballroom (227)
This centerpiece event of the Summit provides an opportunity for community organizations, the teaching community, campus organizations and alumni mentors to connect. Structured conversations will support the development of civic engagement projects for Quest III courses. Facilitator: Michael Lueder, Quest III Civic Engagement Project Coordinator

Thursday, October 25

Civic Engagement, Higher Education and Democracy

3 to 5 p.m., Sage Hall 1214
How do those in higher education address politically related challenges that emerge in and out of the classroom? Faculty panelists address tough civic engagement issues.
Facilitator: David Siemers, Political Science

Friday, October 26

Peer Mentor Recruitment — Student Opportunity!

11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., Reeve Union Concourse
Students will be challenged to become engaged in their campus community by serving as Peer Mentors during the inaugural semester of the University Studies Program.

Provost's Teaching & Learning Summit 2012

Civic Engagement & Student Learning

Register for all Provost's Teaching & Learning Summit events at uwosh.edu/cetl/summit.

Monday, October 22

Opening Reception with Keynote Speaker — Paul Loeb

5 to 7 p.m., Reeve Union Ballroom (227) Students welcome!
Reception and civic engagement poster browsing from 5 to 6 p.m. Provost's welcome and keynote speaker at 6 p.m.

Tuesday, October 23

Global Connections & Civic Engagement Luncheon

11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m., Reeve Union Room 306
Discover how faculty and staff have created powerful learning opportunities. Hear students' remarkable stories of expanded understanding of global challenges and divergent perspectives through projects in Washington, D.C., Nicaragua and Guatemala.
Facilitator: Franca Baricelli, History, Associate Dean, COLS

One Big Learning Community: The Value of Civic Engagement

3 to 4:30 p.m., Reeve Union Ballroom (227) Local non-profit organizations, our teaching community and students describe diverse experiences with community-based learning.
Facilitator: Paul Van Auken, Sociology

Wednesday, October 24

SOTL Scholars Showcase with Luncheon

11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m., Reeve Union Room 306 Six scholars have completed scholarship of teaching and learning investigations this past academic year. Brief presentations by scholars will be followed by poster browsing, conversation and dessert.

Wednesday, October 24

Civic Engagement Connection Extravaganza

2 to 5 p.m., Reeve Union Ballroom (227)
This centerpiece event of the Summit provides an opportunity for community organizations, the teaching community, campus organizations and alumni mentors to connect. Structured conversations will support the development of civic engagement projects for Quest III courses. Facilitator: Michael Lueder, Quest III Civic Engagement Project Coordinator

Thursday, October 25

Civic Engagement, Higher Education and Democracy

3 to 5 p.m., Sage Hall 1214
How do those in higher education address politically related challenges that emerge in and out of the classroom? Faculty panelists address tough civic engagement issues.
Facilitator: David Siemers, Political Science

Friday, October 26

Peer Mentor Recruitment — Student Opportunity!

11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., Reeve Union Concourse
Students will be challenged to become engaged in their campus community by serving as Peer Mentors during the inaugural semester of the University Studies Program.