CAPP Student Scholarship
Nomination and Award Information

This award is intended to reward exceptional high school CAPP students. The award is for a high school senior who will attend UW Oshkosh in the fall. The nomination should outline some exceptional accomplishment in academics, community interaction, or high school campus life. The nomination should not be based upon financial need.

Who may nominate?
Any CAPP Adjunct or Liaison may submit a scholarship nomination.

How many nominations can be submitted?
Each CAPP Adjunct or Liaison may submit one application per academic year. All nominations will remain confidential (unless not requested to do so).

How do I submit a nomination?
The CAPP Scholarship Form must be submitted electronically to: capp@uwosh.edu.

What is the deadline for applications?
The application deadline is March 1 of each year.

How much is the award?
The award is currently $250.00.

How is the award paid to the awardee(s)?
The funds will be deposited in the student's account upon matriculation at UW Oshkosh.

How will the awardee(s) be notified?
The awardee(s) will be announced at the annual spring meeting. The nominator will receive a formal letter and certificate from the CAPP Office to award the student.
