SOCIAL WORKER I/V

Department Of Health And Human Services: Children, Youth and Families Division

Salary Range: $41,704 - $63,394/yr (2013 rates)

POSITION OVERVIEW: Provides child protective services initial assessments or ongoing family assessments in accordance with a risk management system; determines the origin of problems, provides for safety of children; provides information and referral services for the family and case management including case documentation requirements; places children in out of home placements if necessary; provides court related services in accordance with the Children's Code (Chapter 48) and the Juvenile Code (Chapter 938) as it pertains to children in need of protection services. Provides on-call after hours crisis coverage on a rotating basis. May be assigned to any and all Social Work functions performed within the Division.

POSITION REQUIREMENTS: State of Wisconsin Social Work Certification required. Bi-lingual candidates in Spanish or Hmong will receive special consideration.

FRINGE BENEFITS: The County offers an excellent compliment of fringe benefits which include paid vacation, holidays, sick time, health insurance (HMO options), dental insurance, funeral leave, life insurance, long term disability insurance, deferred compensation, and Wisconsin Retirement.

APPLICATION PROCESS: Candidates will be reviewed based on a combination of education and experience. A selection of qualified individuals will be invited to participate in the interview process that may include multiple interviews. All candidates participating in the interview process will be contacted at the conclusion of the search. Communications related to this opportunity should be directed to:

Outagamie County HR Department
File CP-414
410 South Walnut Street
Appleton, WI 54911

RESIDENCY REQUIREMENTS: County residency is not required as a condition of employment.

PUBLIC RECORDS NOTICE: Wisconsin Statutes require an employer to treat an applicant's identity as a public record unless the applicant specifically requests that his or her identity not be disclosed. Even with a written request for confidentiality, identity may be disclosed as required by law if a candidate becomes a finalist for the position.

Outagamie County is an Equal Opportunity Employer

www.outagamie.org