University of Wisconsin Oshkosh
Student Health Center

Position Description
Senior Physician

Summary: Provides primary health care to a diverse student population. Provides medical consultation and supervision of staff. Oversees distribution of pharmaceuticals. Acts as Medical Director for Laboratory services. Participates in the development of policies, procedures, educational materials and outreach activities. Works in partnership with the Division of Student Affairs supporting the mission and values of the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh.

Required Qualifications: MD or DO with current Wisconsin license. Board certified in family practice, internal medicine, pediatrics or emergency medicine. CPR certified. Current DEA registration. ACLS certification preferred. Two years of post- residency work experience. Must have excellent urgent care skills; EKG interpretation, suture skills, and minor surgical procedures. Outstanding interpersonal skills in providing informal and formal consultation and collaboration with student health center staff, and university colleagues. Experience in medical management of mild to moderate mental health conditions to include depression, anxiety, ADHD, substance abuse and eating disorders.

Reports to: Director Student Health Services

Responsibilities:

1. Provides medical care to students. (85%)
    a. Evaluates, diagnoses, treats students presenting with medical or mental health complaints and documents care provided
    b. Provides supervision of emergency medical care.
    c. Provides medical consultation for Nurse Practitioners and clinical staff.
    d. Provides medical supervision of medically directed acts for nursing personnel
    e. Assists with coordination of student care by referral process as needed.
    f. Performs medical and surgical procedures as determined by credentials.
    g. Provides patient education with an emphasis on health promotion, risk reduction, and preventive care
    h. Proficient with the use of electronic medical records.
    i. Leads by example and demonstrates collaboration, productivity, working knowledge of diagnostic coding, documentation standards, and follows all policies and procedures in place for delivering quality patient care.
    j. Serves as Medical Director the Student Health Center, and as acting administrative director in the absence of the Student Health Center Director.
2. Assists Director with administrative duties. (10%)
    a. Provides medical supervision of medical and nursing staff, providing feedback on clinical performance.
    b. As Laboratory Director reviews, approves and signs off on all laboratory policies and procedures on an annual basis. Reviews proficiency testing of lab personnel and all quality indicators to maintain CLIA certification.
    c. Acts as liaison to local hospitals, medical specialist, and insurance carriers.
    d. Participates in the development of medical policies, protocols and procedures, which meet the Accreditation Association for Ambulatory Health Care (AAAHC) standards for accreditation.
    e. Participates in the Executive Committee.
    f. Provides leadership on the Quality Committee
        i. Designs and implements a minimum of one quality study annually.
        ii. Evaluates research data and makes recommendation based on findings
        iii. Reports adverse incidents
        iv. Performs peer review
        v. Performs case review
3. Provides medical education/expertise to campus, staff, and community. (5%)
    a. Guest lectures for the College of Nursing, Athletic Training Program, Pre College programs, b. Mentors Nurse Practitioner graduate students upon request
    c. Provides medical inservices and medical updates for staff.
    d. Participates in the development of patient education and health promotion .

e. Represent the Student Health Center on health related committees on campus, outreach activities, public speaking, and health promotion programming.
f. Provides clinical supervision of students training in health occupations.

4. Maintains professional development activities.
   Maintains board certification.
   Maintains current licensure to practice medicine in the State of Wisconsin Maintains current CPR/ACLS certification, DEA registration Attends continuing education with a focus on college age health topics

(Any optional job responsibilities agreed to in the Athletic Department are the responsibility of that department.)

1.)May include responsibility as Medical Director of the Athletic Department
2.)May include responsibilities as Team Physician with attendance at home football games
3.)May include responsibilities as Team Physician for varied tournaments