Who must take the Praxis II Subject Assessments?

All students who complete a professional education program after August 31, 2004, must take the Praxis II: Subject Assessments required by Wisconsin for their licensure area in order to qualify for a state education license.

Undergraduate and licensure only students must have Admission I before they are eligible to take the Praxis II. It is important to note that no candidate may be waived from taking the required Praxis II test for their licensure area. This includes all scenarios of program completion including but not limited to:

- Educators licensed prior to September, 2004 returning to complete a license program in a new subject area;
- Educators licensed prior to September, 2004 returning to complete programs to add on age levels that were not covered by their previous licenses;
- All educators who complete initial licensing programs after August 31, 2004 and all subsequent programs (that require a Praxis II test) they complete;
- Students completing licensing programs at the undergraduate and graduate levels;
- Students completing licensing programs as special students.

Educators who complete state approved professional education programs after August 31, 2004 in other states will need to document that they have passed the specific Praxis II test(s) required by Wisconsin in their licensure area(s) to obtain an Initial Educator or Professional Educator License in Wisconsin. A one year non-renewable license may be issued to applicants from other states who need to take and pass the appropriate Praxis II test(s).
