Baker Tilly is one of the oldest and largest certified public accounting and consulting firms in the Midwest. Staff today includes 158 partners among over 1,300 total staff. We were recently ranked as the 17th largest certified public accounting and consulting firm in the United States according to the 2008 Public Accounting Report's "Top 100," and are the largest Wisconsin-based CPA firm.

Baker Tilly originated in 1931 with a commitment to deliver innovative financial solutions and solid business strategies to our clients. We believe that an accounting firm should complement the business style it is serving. Our approach balances solid financial know-how with a talent for innovation and creativity. This "can do" philosophy has resulted in our position as one of the industry's most progressive and respected accounting firms.

Our clients

Our clients are both privately-held and publicly-traded companies, and occupy all stages of development from start-ups and family-run businesses to multi-national corporations. They choose Baker Tilly because of our depth of experience, comprehensive service offerings, and commitment to their success.

Many of the businesses we serve are closely-held entities. A large part of our practice consists of providing tax and consulting services such as estate planning, succession planning, and owner buy/sell consultation to closely-held companies.

Worldwide network affiliation

Baker Tilly is an independent member of Baker Tilly International. Baker Tilly International is a network of high quality, independent accounting and business services firms. All Baker Tilly members are committed to providing the best possible service to their clients, in their own marketplaces and across the world, wherever help is needed. All firms within the network adhere to the same high quality standards and share skills, resources, and expertise to create best practices.

Our firm is able to call upon member firms around the world to provide you with local expertise in any overseas marketplace.

Baker Tilly International is presently ranked eighth largest in the world in international networks. This membership provides access to the resources and talent of hundreds of highly respected, independently owned accounting and consulting firms worldwide.

Operations Resource

General Beverage

P.O. Box 44326
Madison, WI 54744

John Grams
jgrams@genbev.com
www.genbev.com

What is General Beverage?

General Beverage Sales Company is a B to B, wholesale distributor of wine, spirits and beer operating throughout Wisconsin with companies located in Madison, Milwaukee, Oshkosh, Little Chute, St. Point, Menomonee, and Superior. GB is family owned and was founded in 1933.

What are the Immediate Opportunities?

GB seeks well-educated, intelligent, ambitious, extroverted individuals to join us as sales representatives. As a GB sales representative, you will be responsible for the future of the numerous brands sold by GB in our markets. You are expected to sell retailers programs and merchandising concepts created by GB and our suppliers. Your success will determine your future.

Our products (wine, spirits, and beer) date back to before recorded history. However, the method of distributing these products in the United States is relatively new. Our wholesale industry did not take its present form until the Repeal of Prohibition in 1933.

Following Repeal, wine, spirits and beer suppliers were production-oriented companies. Their marketing expertise lagged far behind that of consumer-oriented industries, i.e., soap, cereal, paper goods, cosmetics, etc. Our suppliers merely produced their goods, sold them to wholesalers, and hoped for the best. Little attention was paid to consumer needs and trends.

Following World War II, this began to change. Various category brand leaders emerged; giving sophisticated advertising and marketing direction to the industry. GB is fortunate in having many of those leading brands.

Today, suppliers expect more from a wholesaler than mere distribution. They demand complete implantation of their marketing plans at the retail level.

A major factor in GB's growth during the last half-century has been the success of our sales force in executing these marketing plans. New sales representatives are expected to continue this tradition.

Is there a Training Program?

Sales training never ends at GB. Initial training takes from 4-6 weeks. Once taught, a salesperson receives additional individual training through management working with the salesperson in the territory. In addition, periodic sales training seminars are held, highlighting specific areas of selling. Finally, the latest in technology plays a major role in training at GB.

The initial training is predominantly "on the job" working with your sales manager. Since GB does not hire large groups of sales people at one time, formal classroom training is impossible.

The new sales representative spends the first week:

- 1) reviewing their copy of our "GB Sales and Merchandising Manual" and, if applicable, the sales training manual of a major supplier;
- 2) role playing basic sale presentations; and
- 3) working with their manager and another salesperson, observing and learning the rudiments of selling skills.

In the Beginning...

The Miles Kimball Company (MKC) began with a dream and a daring venture by its founder. Envisioning that customers would like to see their own names printed on Christmas Cards, Miles Kimball set out to make his idea a reality. With just a little money in his pocket, Miles Kimball mailed 500 personalized Christmas Cards to all the Johnsons in the Minneapolis phone book and the company has not looked back since.

to the Present...

While the first mailing under the Miles Kimball name was to a modest 500 customers, MKC catalogs reach more than 120 million households today. Kimball's dream has grown to include five catalog titles and MKC now employs up to 1,500 team members in Oshkosh, WI, and Colorado Springs, CO. The product line has grown as well. While Christmas Cards and personalization are at the heart of MKC, we also offer catalogs ranging from home accessories, cookware, to high-end decor, to candy" over 12,000 different products in all. In fact, MKC is one of America's first and largest direct marketers of consumer gifts and household products and processes 5 million orders annually.

and Investing in the Future...

Since you don't just work in a community, you also live there, the Miles Kimball Company and its team members take great pride in joining together to help local organizations. In fact, several of our Executive Leaders serve on local community Board of Directors. Through our Wellness and Sunshine Committee, Miles Kimball Company continues to give back to the community. The groups sponsor events and organize team members who participate in out-side-of-work activities. Team members give of themselves through donations in the form of merchandise, cash and most importantly, time, to make our community a fun, safe, healthy place to live and raise families.

They offer exclusive access to insurance products from a top-rated company, The Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company (Northwestern Mutual), as well as an array of quality financial products and services available through the company's subsidiaries and affiliates.

Interns with the Northwestern Mutual Financial Network have the same opportunities to build their careers as full-time representatives. Supported by our network of specialists, training programs and mentoring opportunities, interns have access to the resources, products and assistance they need to help their clients and build their practices.

Like Financial Representatives, interns strive to understand their clients' goals and visions in order to uncover financial solutions that put them on a path to success. Financial Representative interns are in business for themselves " but they're not alone to uncover financial solutions that put them on a path to success.

Opportunity: Do you have what it takes to leverage the maximum potential of this career with the right mix of skills, ambition, and timing? If you're a top-notch performer, value the freedom of being your own boss, want to be financially rewarded for your success, and have the desire to positively impact people's lives every day, consider a career as a Northwestern Mutual Financial Network Financial Representative with one of our 350 offices nationwide.

Leverage Our Strength: You can count on us to help you build strong financial futures for your clients. Financial strength is the cornerstone of any company, and Northwestern Mutual has an exceptionally strong financial position.

When a client is looking for someone to help manage their financial risk and achieve financial security in today's complex world, they have much to consider. For example, what do others say about the organization? Is it financially strong enough to be there when you need it? Does it deliver exceptional value over the long term? Does it take care of its customers and provide them with excellent service? Do the company's values match your own?

Oshkosh Corporation is a leading manufacturer and marketer of access equipment, specialty vehicles and truck bodies for the primary markets of defense, concrete placement, refuse hauling, access equipment and fire & emergency.

Oshkosh is a global enterprise that has driven revenue from $1.3 billion in fiscal 2000 to $7.14 billion* in fiscal 2008. This financial performance is the result of the company's diversified business model and focused growth strategies:

*Embrace operational excellence. Oshkosh's manufacturing philosophy of mass customization delivers highly specialized vehicles, while its large-scale manufacturing operations provide significant economies of scale.

*Lead in product innovation. Oshkosh seeks to introduce more new products and technologies than its competitors in each end market, giving the company a distinct competitive advantage. Oshkosh is at the forefront of robotic vehicle development, diesel-electric drive technology, and independent suspension systems.

*Commercialize through acquisitions. Oshkosh has a proven record of completing strategic acquisitions, and then driving organic growth and cost reductions. Since 1996, the company has completed 15 acquisitions.

The company's major brands - Oshkosh, JLG, Pierce, McNeilus, IMT, Medtec, Geesink, Norba, Jerr-Dan, BAI, CON-E-CO and London - are considered leaders in their industries. JLG leads with a diverse product portfolio including leading brands such as JLG® aerial work platforms; JLG, SkyTrak® and Lull® and telehandlers. Under its Pierce® brand, Oshkosh is the North America's leading fire truck manufacturer. Oshkosh is among the world's leading defense vehicle manufacturers. McNeilus® brand concrete mixers are used by more concrete producers than any other. The combined McNeilus and Geesink Norba Group is the world leader in refuse collection bodies. Jerr-Dan is a top name in towing and recovery equipment. BAI is the second largest fire truck manufacturer in Italy; CON-E-CO is a leading U.S. concrete batch plant manufacturer, and London is the leading Canadian concrete mixer manufacturer.

Founded in 1917, Oshkosh Corporation has manufacturing operations in 10 U.S. states and in Australia, Belgium, Canada, Germany, France, Italy, The Netherlands, Romania, Sweden and the United Kingdom. The company currently employs approximately 14,000 people worldwide.

The Peace Corps traces its roots and mission to 1960, when then Senator John F. Kennedy challenged students at the University of Michigan to serve their country in the cause of peace by living and working in developing countries. From that inspiration grew an agency of the federal government devoted to world peace and friendship.

Since that time, more than 195,000 Peace Corps Volunteers have served in 139 host countries to work on issues ranging from AIDS education to information technology and environmental preservation.

Today's Peace Corps is more vital than ever, working in emerging and essential areas such as information technology and business development, and committing more than 1,000 new Volunteers as a part of the President's Emergency Plan for AIDS Relief. Peace Corps Volunteers continue to help countless individuals who want to build a better life for themselves, their children, and their communities.

The Peace Corps' mission has three simple goals:

1. Helping the people of interested countries in meeting their need for trained men and women.
2. Helping promote a better understanding of Americans on the part of the peoples served.
3. Helping promote a better understanding of other peoples on the part of Americans.

The anchor product at Strategic is our award-winning Outbound Telephone Fundraising (Telefundraising) service. Given 100% of our clients are fundraising organizations, we live, breathe and think fundraising “ 100% of the time. All of our products and services are built around the fundraising programs of our clients, and the highest level of ethical standards and donor stewardship are at the heart of our client management and fundraiser teams.

Professional Fundraiser Representative

Our results-driven phone fundraising programs include donor cultivation, lapsed donor reactivation, and donor acquisition. These programs may involve one-time gift asks, recurring/sustaining gift programs, major donor or mid-level upgrade/cultivation, membership recruitment or renewal, volunteer recruitment, pre-recorded messages and surveys.

Our experienced client management teams work closely with our clients and their agency to develop compelling and creative fundraising strategies, craft motivating scripts and letters, and effectively target the right audience through rigorous testing and statistical analysis. For each client we carefully select a team of fundraisers who will be a part of their program, ensuring the right blend of talent, experience and desire/affinity for the client’s mission. An integral aspect of our service offering is that we validate 100% of all of the pledges received by our fundraisers, at no additional cost to the client. We feel this is a critical component of our success, a practice we encourage our clients to expect from any telefundraising partner.

All of our company-owned-and-operated call centers are equipped with state-of-the-art technology, including the latest in predictive dialing and call monitoring. This technology provides constant access to up-to-the-minute information about every campaign, enabling us to adjust calling strategies and scripts near real-time. Throughout the duration of each program, our clients have 24/7 secure web access to detailed reports, and our client teams can also provide a vast array of customize reports and statistical analyses.

Included as a standard aspect of all of our phone fundraising programs, we will send up to three letters to each individual who has agreed to make a donation as a pledge confirmation and reminder, at no additional cost to the client (including postage, stock and printing). These letters are a great reinforcement of the message and mission of our clients, and a response form and return envelope are provided for the donor’s convenience.

The United States Marine Corps is looking for full-time college students and college graduates who desire to serve their country as an Officer of Marines. To begin the journey, you will attend Officer Candidates School (OCS) during the summer, and upon earning your degree, you will be eligible to receive a commission as a Second Lieutenant.

The Marine Corps offers some of the best leadership training in the world, and with the opportunity to exercise that leadership immediately upon entry into service, the Marine Corps gives its newest officers direct responsibility for the nation's most valuable asset, the individual Marine.

In our commissioning programs you will learn to think tactically, to act decisively, and to lead with confidence. The Marine Corps offers a competitive salary, up to 25 occupational specialties to a new officer including guaranteed aviation positions, and most importantly, the pride of earning the title Marine.

The University of Wisconsin - Eau Claire is known for its quality graduate programs that build on strong undergraduate programs, meet regional needs, and emphasize individual attention with faculty mentors. We are fully accredited by the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools (NCA) to offer work at the master's and education specialist levels, and we are a member of the Council of Graduate Schools (CGS) as well as the Midwest Association of Graduate Schools (MAGS).

Graduate Students

UW - Eau Claire offers Master's degrees in Business Administration (both an on-site and an online MBA), Communication Sciences and Disorders, Education (including Elementary Education, Library Science, Reading, and Special Education), English, History, Nursing, and School Psychology. Also offered is the Ed.S. degree in School Psychology; and in the summer of 2010 we will begin to offer Doctor of Nursing Practice (DNP). Our graduate programs vary in format, from traditional full-time programs to exclusively online programs to evening programs and even to flexibly scheduled "cohort" programs. For instance, our nursing program offers a one day per week course schedule, and some of our education programs only meet once per month (on weekends) with extensive online learning contacts between face to face sessions.

Graduate studies at UW - Eau Claire emphasize personal working relationships between faculty and students in a variety of learning situations. A hallmark of graduate education is scholarly and creative activity, emphasizing discipline-specific research, the acquisition of new knowledge, and the application or transmission of existing knowledge. At UW - Eau Claire, all of our programs foster students' intellectual development, contribute to the advancement of disciplines, and enhance students' personal lives and their ability to contribute to their professions and communities.

So, whether you are looking to increase and improve your knowledge and skills, prepare for a career change or a new professional challenge, or just continue your life-long learning, choose UW - Eau Claire for your Graduate Studies.
