

ROBERT P. JOHNSON

Campus:

495 College Hall
Oshkosh, WI
54903
(920)230-4497

Permanent:

132 Main St.
Appleton, WI
54949
(920)458-9000

EDUCATION: University of Wisconsin Oshkosh, Oshkosh WI

Bachelors of Science in Geology May 2007
GPA of 3.6/4.0

EXPERIENCE: Black Hills National Park, Black Hills, South Dakota

Intern May 2007 to August 2007

- Participated in the computerized study of rock composition and deterioration of the Black Hills National Monument.
- Developed seismographic program to measure the deterioration factor of various rock strata to assist researchers in analyzing compounds for repair and upkeep of the monument
- Launched the “Friends of the Monument” project as a Web-based newsletter to provide information for frequent visitors and travelers to the site

University of Wisconsin Oshkosh, Oshkosh, WI

Geology Department Lab Assistant, August 2006 to May 2007

- Prepared and cleaned the lab
- Developed several new experiments for Introduction to Geology Lab.
- Assisted professors in grading of lab experiments

ACTIVITIES:

- Vice President, Geology Club, May 2007-Present
- Member, Geology Club Jan. 2005-Present

SKILLS:

- Proficient with MS Office, Lotus Notes, Windows XP, and the Internet