The difference between Aflac and major medical insurance companies is that we give money DIRECTLY to policyholders when they become ill or suffer an injury, whereas health insurance companies only pay towards doctors and hospitals. Even if you're not sick and just go in for a check-up, Aflac will send you a check. We also offer wellness benefits!

Being an Aflac insurance agent means the sky's the limit for unlimited income and job satisfaction. There are multiple ways to get paid: commission, renewal commission, a stock bonus, recruiting program bonus, and more. But sometimes it's nice to get a pat on the back. Aflac's insurance agents receive many awards for hitting sales milestones, including trips that literally take you around the world. From Switzerland to Rome, from the Mediterranean to Hawaii, Aflac can take you there.

The Legislative Audit Bureau, located in Madison, Wisconsin, performs financial, compliance, and management audits of Wisconsin state agencies. We have audit responsibility over all state government activities, which provides you with many diverse audit opportunities. A large part of staff audit time is devoted to the State of Wisconsin's single audit report, which includes our opinion on the State's financial statements and its compliance with regulations related to federal grants. We also provide an opinion on the financial statements of the State Lottery, the University of Wisconsin System, the State of Wisconsin Investment Board, and other state agencies and programs.

As part of our audits, we develop issues and findings of legislative concern and report the results to the Joint Legislative Audit Committee. Our reports are taken into consideration by the Wisconsin Legislature in developing public policy.
