Monday, October 27
Opening Reception with Keynote Speaker
Reeve Union Ballroom (227BC)
4 to 5 p.m. Reception and poster browsing
5 to 6 p.m. Provost’s Welcome and keynote speaker

Tuesday, October 28
Changing Faculty Roles in the 21st-Century with Luncheon
11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m., Reeve Union Room 306
According to the Chronicle of Higher Education, “...the roles of faculty members at all types of institutions are changing quickly and radically.” In this session, UW Oshkosh faculty will explore this phenomenon.

Student Gadgets: Distraction or Engagement Tool?
3 to 4:30 p.m., Reeve Union Room 202
Members of the teaching community will present various policies related to students’ usage of technology during class followed by student reactions and a local K-12 technology-enriched approach. These brief presentations will be followed by discussion.

Wednesday, October 29
Millennial Students: Demographic Characteristic or Overgeneralization? with Luncheon
11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m., Reeve Union Room 306
In this session, a student-instructor team will provide provocative perspectives for discussion of this topic and related teaching and learning strategies.

Teaching About Race: A Collaborative Lesson Study Project
3 to 4:30 p.m., Reeve Union Room 202
An interdisciplinary team of UW Oshkosh faculty members will discuss the results of their collaborative “lesson study” project on classroom discussions of race.

Thursday, October 30
Global Citizenship and the 21st-Century Learner with Luncheon
11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m., Reeve Union Room 306
How can intentional integration of technology further student engagement in the great global classroom? This session will include three demonstrations from the UW Oshkosh teaching community and the debut of a new resource area on the CETL website.

Advising as Teaching: Best-Practice Processes for Faculty Advisors of 21st-Century Students
3 to 4:30 p.m., Reeve Union Room 202
A faculty-advisor team will facilitate discussion about the role of faculty advising in a 21st-century undergraduate education. Details for a spring “Best Practice Certification” will be announced at the conclusion of this session.

Friday, October 31
Engaging 21st-Century Learners in the Quest: Student Learning in Action
11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., Reeve Union Concourse
Students and their Quest instructors will demonstrate engaged learning from the first-year experience (Quest I), ethical reasoning case studies and simulation (Quest II), and community-based learning (Quest III).