

EVALUATE and PRIORITIZE (current Strategic Action Initiatives)

[Numbers refer to source document, the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh 2000-2004 Strategic Plan Update & Annual Report]

Questions:

- Which initiatives should be kept as high priority and included with future priorities? [Green votes]
- Which initiatives should be retired from the high priority list? [Red votes]

1. Active learning and Civic Engagement through UW Oshkosh General Education Program
General education model that emphasizes problem-based instruction, service learning, student-faculty interaction and civic engagement.
[60 Green, 13 Red]
2. Personalized Services and Development Programs for Each Student: The UW Oshkosh Student Compact
Integration of advising, assessment and career development services into a seamless educational experience. Students will have a personalized curricular, career and development plan in place by the end of their first year. [60 Green, 38 Red]
13. Environmental Studies Community Resource Center
Creation of an Environmental Studies Community Resource Center.
[62 Green, 17 Red]
14. Arts Management
New interdisciplinary major for professionals in arts organization.
[31 Green, 61 Red]
16. Competitive Manufacturing through Technology management (Oshkosh-Stout)
Joint project with UW-Stout and the Fox Valley Technical College to assist in solving technology and information management problems.
[42 Green, 63 Red]
19. Faculty Compact
Initiative to foster faculty development activities. [98 Green, 1 Red]