Mission Statement
The Student Advisory Council (SAC) of the College of business is a group of students which acts as an intermediary between the entire student body of the College and the Dean. The SAC represents the interests of the students and communicates student perceptions, issues, desires, and concerns to the Dean. The SAC also represents the Dean to the students and facilitates communications, promotes College initiatives, and assists with College activities that benefit students, faculty, staff, alumni, and other College stakeholders.

Objectives
The objectives of the Student Advisory Council of the College of Business are to:
1. Represent the best interests of all College of Business students on all relevant issues to the Dean;
2. Advise the Dean on relevant academic and College issues impacting business students;
3. Represent the Dean on actions, decisions, and initiatives affecting the academic experiences of business students;
4. Solicit and collect student opinions and ideas regarding College initiatives impacting students;
5. Provide student representation on the College of Business Strategic Planning Council;
6. Be ambassadors of the College to all UWO students, faculty, staff, university administration, alumni, businesses, the local community, and society in general.

Membership
The membership of the Student Advisory Council consists of two members (primary and alternate) from each recognized College of Business student organization. Additional students may be invited to serve on committees, task forces, and other initiatives as directed by the SAC.

Meetings
The College of Business Student Advisory Council will meet at least once each month during the academic year (with the exception of January). It may also meet at additional times if warranted.
