Changes to section IV of Undergraduate Bulletin/Department of Music:
Admission/Graduation Requirements

Current Statements: Delete

6. If a student earns less than a C in any Basic Musicianship course, that course must be repeated the next time it is offered, or progress in the program major stops.
7. If a student earns less than a C in a repeat of a Basic Musicianship course, progress in the program major stops.
8. Students may enroll in no more than six semesters of Basic Musicianship for the completion of the four-semester Basic Musicianship requirement.

Proposed Statements: Add/Replace

6. If a student earns less than a C in any Music Theory course (107/108/204/206) or any Keyboard Harmony/Aural Skills course (173/174/273/274) that course must be repeated in the next academic year or progress as a music major stops and the student can no longer declare music as a major.
7. If, in any semester after that in which a student first earns a grade less than C, the student earns another grade less than C in any of the Music Theory or Keyboard Harmony/Aural

Skills courses listed above, then progress as a music major stops and the student can no longer declare music as a major.

Justification of Proposed Change

When the department revised its core curriculum it abolished the Basic Musicianship and Piano Class courses and replaced them with Music Theory and Keyboard Harmony/Aural Skills courses. The current statements apply to courses that no longer exist.

Aside from the fact that Basic Musicianship courses no longer exist, the current policy allows for a student to repeat two courses, that is, to take four years to complete a two-year, lower-level sequence. These courses are prerequisites for upper level courses in all department programs. The department's judgment is that if a student cannot complete the core sequence in three years, then he or she is not meant to be a music major.
