

Humanities Meeting, December 7, 2006 N/E 107 1:30-2:30
Minutes

1. Minutes of November 9, 2006: Behm/Rindo motion to approve accepted unanimously.
2. Curriculum action items
 - Course actions/proposals (Form A)
 - a. FOREIGN LANGUAGES & LITERATURES: New course, Intro. To Chinese I (Chinese 110) Neal/Behm motion passed unanimously.
 - b. WOMEN'S STUDIES/COMMUNICATION: Change in prerequisites (WS/COMM 347) Neal/Fukuta motion passed unanimously.
 - Program actions/proposals (Form C)
 - a. ENGLISH: Change in M.A. degree requirements, Bannan/Burr motion to approve both changes passed unanimously.
3. Top Ten suggestions for Foundation: Chairs are asked to suggest a "wish list" for their department that might be given to donors, of items/programs costing between $1,000-5,000. May include scholarships, equipment, lectureships, etc. Send suggestions to John Koker.
4. Departmental updates: All searches are proceeding well.
5. Other business: The Faculty Committee's ranking of new position requests will be distributed soon. Pete Brown will be chair of Religious Studies/Anthro starting in January, but his schedule precludes participation in COLS meetings, so Jeff Behm will still attend during Spring semester.

Respectfully submitted, Helen Bannan, Women's Studies
