

Careers in Sports
Monday, March 19, 2007
Reeve Memorial Union
University of Wisconsin Oshkosh

8:30: Opening Session: Working in Sports: You Can Do That for a Living? -- Rob Zerjav, President and General Manager, Wisconsin Timber Rattlers

9:30: You Don't Have to Be a Professional Athlete to Work in Professional Sports -- Mark Schiefelbein, Director of Administrative Affairs, Green Bay Packers

10:30: Working for a League or Conference: Gary Karner, Commissioner, Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Association, and Kristin Steckmesser, Assistant Director of Championships, NCAA

11:15: The Bottom of the Ladder: Getting Started and Moving Up – Lori Warczak, Community Relations Assistant, Milwaukee Bucks

11:45: Lunch (on your own)

12:45: Getting That Critical Internship – Eric Cruise, former intern with the Chicago Cubs, Kristin Steckmesser, former intern with the NCAA, and Alison Cesnovar, intern with NCAA; panel chaired by Chrissy Lambie, Internship Coordinator, UW Oshkosh Career Services

1:30: Jobs in Health and Fitness – Hal Strough, Director, Athletic Training Education Program, UW Oshkosh and Amy Flick, Physical Therapist, ThedaCare

2:15: Sports Journalism and Media – Dylan Tomlinson, Packers Beat Writer, Appleton Post-Crescent, and John Burton, Sports Anchor, NBC26

3:00: Wrap-Up and UWO Admissions presentation

3:15 Adjourn