

$500 Scholarship--2010

The scholarship was established by the Board of Directors to recognize the accomplishments and the contributions of graduating high school journalists who are members of NEWSPA. The winner of the $500 scholarship will be announced at the Spring Conference held on Wednesday, April 21, 2010 at the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh campus.

Criteria

1. Applicants must have met their schools' academic requirements, and will graduate in 2010.
2. Students must have worked for at least one year on the school newspaper and/or yearbook.
3. Applicants must have attended at least one NEWSPA Spring Conference, or be registered and attend the 2010 conference held at the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh.
4. Applicants must complete the application form that is to be signed by their journalism adviser.
5. Applicants must submit an essay of approximately 500 words. The essay should describe their involvement in high school publications, their interest in journalism as a field of study and their thoughts on journalism as a career. Include samples of their work with their application.
6. Applicants who do not meet all of the criteria due to special circumstances can submit a letter of explanation with their application.
7. Applicants can use the scholarship money at any college or university, but they must plan to major or minor in a journalism-related discipline (including but not limited to news-editorial, Internet-Web design, photography, magazines, advertising, public relations or broadcasting).

Selection

1. The application form is available on page two of this scholarship information.
2. The winners will be selected by a panel of judges who are actively working in the field of journalism.

Application must be postmarked by April 1, 2010
