

CHECKSHEET
FOR A MINOR IN ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES

<prerequisites in these brackets>
{semester offered in these brackets}

The ES minor gives students a broad, interdisciplinary understanding in environmental issues. Requirements include two courses in environmental science, two in environment and society, two in environmental values. The minor is culminated in two interdisciplinary seminars.

Core Curriculum (all courses required for the minor): 25 credits

Semester Grade

ENVIRONMENT AND SCIENCE AREA (7 credits)

_____ _____ Biology 105, or Chemistry 103, or Geology 150, or Geography 121 (all NS) <none>
{fall, spring}

_____ _____ Env St/Bio 260: Environmental Science <intro Env Science course> {spring}

ENVIRONMENT AND SOCIETY AREA (6 credits)

_____ _____ Env St 101: Seminar on Env Issues (SS) or TBIS: Nature and Society (SS) <none> {fall, fall interim, spring}

_____ _____ Env St/Poli Sci/Soc 261: Environment and Society (SS) <none> {fall, spring}

ENVIRONMENTAL VALUES AREA (6 credits)

_____ _____ ES/Rel 162: Religion and Nature (HU) <none> {spring} or ES/Engl 243: Intro American Nature
Writing (HU) <none> {fall} or ES/Engl 244: Japanese Nature Writing (HU/NW) <none> {spring}

_____ _____ ES 282: Environment, Community, & Values (HU) <ES 101 & 162/243/244> {fall}

INTERDISCIPLINARY SEMINARS (6 credits)

_____ _____ Env St 370: Environmental Science, Policy, & Problem Solving <ES 260 & ES 261> {fall}

_____ _____ Env St 490: Senior Seminar <ES 260, 261, and 282> {spring}