

Final Portfolio and Resource File

MUSIC 384—Dr. Liske

Instructions: Your portfolio is meant to (1) document the breadth and depth of your experiences and competence in the elementary methods course, and (2) result in an organized resource file which may help you in field experiences and teaching. Collect the materials listed below in a loose-leaf binder labeled with your name on the spine. You may choose to include additional materials, but all items below must be present. Your portfolio will be graded for completeness and timeliness (5 pts.)

- Section 1 Course Information
 - a. Syllabus
 - b. Class Notes (complete and legible, but need not be typed or rewritten)
 - c. Any additional handouts and materials

- Section 2 Professional Development
 - a. Summaries and copies of journal articles and web sites in order of the National Standards (10)
 - b. Budget Assignment

- Section 3 Teaching and Observation
 - a. Observation Reports (3)
 - b. Lesson Plans/Task Analysis for peer teaching assignments
 - c. Video self-analyses (2)
 - d. practicum materials

- Section 4 Curriculum Resources
 - a. Textbook Assignment
 - b. Kodály Assignment
 - c. Listening Program and Tape/CD
(please attach cassette/CD to binder so it won't be lost)
 - d. Final Curriculum Project