

Statement from Chancellor Richard H. Wells

The tragedy at Northern Illinois University is both disturbing and deeply saddening.

The loss of life and injury is devastating to the Northern Illinois University community, both on campus and off; and our thoughts are with the victims and their families, as well as the students, staff and faculty, during this most difficult time.

While no university is immune to this kind of violence, UW Oshkosh is committed to maintaining a safe and secure environment.

During these difficult times, if you feel you need assistance, contact the University Counseling Center at (920) 424-2061 or www.uwosh.edu/couns_center.

If you have questions or concerns about safety issues, please contact University Police (920) 424-1212 (Emergency) or (920) 424-1216 (Non-Emergency).

Following this e-mail, faculty, staff and students will receive additional information on the resources available to our campus community for dealing with this tragedy on a personal level and in the classroom.

Again, we offer our heartfelt condolences to the Northern Illinois University community.

Chancellor Richard H. Wells
University of Wisconsin Oshkosh