

Engage marks UWO's 140th year with special edition

by Natalie Johnson - Friday, September 30, 2011

<http://www.uwosh.edu/today/14495/engage-marks-uwo-140th-year-with-special-edition/>

As the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh marks its 140th year this fall, the latest issue of Engage magazine takes a look back at the University's roots as a Normal School and explores the challenges facing the institution's future as a teacher of teachers.

The new issue — available online now — considers how the 21st century classroom is changing with new budgetary and cultural challenges.

“It's a constant adaptation,” said Fred Yeo, dean of UW Oshkosh's College of Education and Human Services.

In this issue, readers also will:

- Learn how UWO's Project Success has been helping students succeed since 1979.
- Find a wide variety of bonus features, including a new UW Oshkosh re-photography project that showcases "then and now" photos of campus.
- Read a remembrance of former Alumni Director Jean C. (Goodwin) Nelson.

Look for exclusive content added monthly to Engage online.