They are words so powerful, they neither fade nor wither as the years and decades wear on.

"I have a dream..."

Members of the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh community joined coordinators of the 19th Annual Martin Luther King Jr. Community Celebration in the production of a simple, powerful video paying tribute to Dr. King's cherished, 1963 speech.

For their participation in the video project, a special thanks goes out to Chancellor Richard Wells, alumnus Anthony Miller, African American Studies Program Director Norlisha Crawford, Assistant Director of Residence Life Victor Alattore, State Rep. Gordon Hintz, Willie Peka, student Dominique Smith, student and retired U.S. Army Lt. Col. Floyd Harris, Armanni Lardydell, Center for Academic Support and Diversity Counselor/Advisor Mia Khou Xiong, College of Letters and Science Assistant Dean Jordan Landry and Dean of Students Sharon Kipetz.
