The University of Wisconsin Oshkosh Hockey Club swept UW-Milwaukee Saturday, Nov. 12 and Sunday, Nov. 13 to improve their record to 3-1.

The Titans won both games 6-3, tallied 97 shots on the weekend, and had many players score the first goal of their college careers. On Friday night, Matt DeFlorin, a senior, Ryan Regeth, a sophomore, and Matt Brey, a senior, netted their first goals. Jared Deli, a senior, Cory Chapp, a sophomore, and Ethan Mytinger, a sophomore, joined the list of players getting their first goals on Saturday.

The UW Oshkosh Hockey Club plays their first home game of the season at 7 p.m. Friday, Nov. 18 at the Oshkosh YMCA on 20th Avenue. The game is against the Fox Cities Ice Dogs. Admission is free.
