A STUDENT'S GUIDE TO THE UNIVERSITY STUDIES PROGRAM (USP)
THE UNIVERSITY REQUIRES A MINIMUM OF 38 CREDITS IN USP APPROVED COURSEWORK

The Foundation of Your Education at UW Oshkosh

General education is delivered to students in every major through the University Studies Program (USP). The USP offers a superb broad-based education that prepares students for advanced study at the university as well as life after graduation.

The USP is intentionally designed for flexibility so that students may choose from a wide array of courses to satisfy and enhance degree requirements while incorporating practices that have been shown to support student success. Courses in the "QUEST" sequence satisfy credit requirements in the EXPLORE categories listed below:

- 1. Explore Culture (XC): Humanities and the Fine and Performing Arts
2. Explore Nature (XM & XL): Mathematics and the Sciences
3. Explore Society (XS): Social Sciences

Table with 3 columns: QUEST I (1st Semester), QUEST II (2nd Semester), and QUEST III (3rd or 4th Semester). Each column includes course descriptions and a field for 'Explore Course: (XL or XC or XS)'.
