RE: Call for Proposals for the 2018 OPID Spring Conference on Teaching & Learning

The 2018 OPID Spring Conference on Teaching & Learning: The Joy of Teaching in an Age of Digital Learning will be Thursday, April 12 to Friday, April 13, 2018 at the Memorial Union in Madison; and will feature some of the extraordinary work unfolding in classrooms – in-person and virtual – throughout the University of Wisconsin System. We invite faculty and instructional academic staff to share their experiences with teaching in an age of digital learning.

Please encourage your most innovative faculty and instructional academic staff to submit a proposal. We look forward to a vibrant gathering where participants leave rejuvenated to share their joy of teaching with our students.

Please refer to the attached Call for Proposals or visit our website for additional information.

The deadline for submission of proposals is Monday, November 27, 2017. Proposal notifications will go out in December 2017. Accepted participants are expected to register for the conference as confirmation that they will present.

Please direct questions to Fay Akindes, Director, Systemwide Professional and Instructional Development fakindes@uwsa.edu, (608) 263-2684.
