

THE NEVIN JAMES WRITING CONTEST

2019 Calendar Year

To be considered for an award, submit the following materials in an email to Samantha Looker-Koenigs, Director of First-Year Writing, at lookers@uwosh.edu:

- This nomination form
- The essay, in .doc, .docx, or .pdf format, with student's and instructor's names removed
- The assignment sheet, in .doc, .docx, or .pdf format, with instructor's name removed

Students and instructors should collaborate in preparing the nomination; email submissions may come from students or instructors.

Student Author Information:

Name _____ Student ID # _____

Address (Street, City, Zip) _____

Telephone _____ UW Oshkosh Email _____

Instructor Information:

Name _____ Email _____

Telephone _____

Essay and Course Information:

Title of Essay _____

Course _____ Section Number _____

Semester and Year of Enrollment (select one): Spring 2019 Fall 2019

Eligibility Checklist:

By submitting this entry, you are certifying that the following are true (please check each item to indicate your agreement):

This essay is the student author's own work, and the student has not previously entered or won the Nevin James Writing Contest.

This essay was submitted for a grade in the instructor's English 110 or WBIS 188 class during the year 2019. (Essays revised after grading are acceptable.)

The instructor supports the nomination of this essay for an award and has nominated no more than five students per semester.

The final deadline for submissions is February 14, 2020. You will be notified of our award decision by email in March 2020. Winners will receive a cash award applied to their UWO student account and be invited to attend UWO's Honors and Awards Ceremony in April 2020.