

A Rubric For Evaluating WebQuest

If a page seems to fall between categories, feel free to score it with in-between points.

Overall Aesthetics (This refers to the WebQuest page itself, not the external resources linked to it.)

	Beginning	Developing	Accomplished	Score
Overall Visual Appeal	0	2	4
Navigation & Flow	0	2	4
Mechanical Aspects	0	1	2

Introduction

	Beginning	Developing	Accomplished	Score
Motivational Effectiveness of Introduction	0	1	2
Cognitive Effectiveness of the Introduction	0	1	2

Task (The task is the end result of student efforts... not the steps involved in getting there.)

				Score
Connection of Task to Standards	0	2	4
Cognitive Level of the Task	0	3	6

Process (The process is the step-by-step description of how students will accomplish the task.)

	Beginning	Developing	Accomplished	Score
Clarity of Process	0	2	4
Scaffolding of Process	0	3	6
Richness of Process	0	1	2

Resources (Note: you should evaluate all resources linked to the page, even if they are in sections other than the Process block. Also note that books, video and other off-line resources can and should be used where appropriate.)

	Beginning	Developing	Accomplished	Score
Relevance & Quantity of Resources	0	2	4
Quality of Resources	0	2	4

Evaluation

	Beginning	Developing	Accomplished	Score
Clarity of Evaluation Criteria	0	3	6

Total points (Maxium of 50)->

Multiple Total points by 2 for final grade (Maxium of 100)->

URL of Webquest

Authors of Webquest

Original WebQuest rubric by Bernie Dodge.

This is Version 1.03. Modified by Laura Bellofatto, Nick Bohl, Mike Casey, Marsha Krill, and Bernie Dodge and last updated on June 19, 2001.