DEPARTMENT OF GEOLOGY - LAB TEACHING ASSISTANTS, TUTORS, AND BUILDING MONITORS - FALL 2016

The Geology Department is now accepting applications for positions as Laboratory Teaching Assistants, Tutors and Building Monitors (Saturdays and Sundays from 1:00PM – 3PM) for the fall 2016 semester. If you are currently employed in the department you will need to complete an application as your interests and availability may change next semester.

The requirements for qualification as a T.A./Tutor are:

A. The student must be a major or a minor in the discipline to serve as a proctor in the Department's program.
B. The student must have completed at least 60 university credits with an accumulated GPA of at least 2.80. In addition, the student must have completed at least 15 credits (including core courses where applicable) toward his/her major or minor and must have at least a 3.00 grade point average in the courses offered by the major or minor department.
C. The student must have already completed the course for which he or she will proctor with at least a B grade. Alternatively, the student must have completed a higher level course covering the course material with at least a B grade.
D. Student must be able to TA and tutor all introductory geology courses: Physical Geology, Evolution of the Earth, and Environmental Geology. This means that as a TA or tutor, you will be prepared to answer questions or at least to know where to find answers in the textbook or lab manual.

YOU CAN PICK UP AN APPLICATION FROM COURTNEY IN THE GEOLOGY DEPARTMENT OFFICE, HARRINGTON 215.

NOTE: Students should visit the Financial Aid Office ASAP to find out if they are eligible for Work-Study.

Funds are distributed to those who are eligible on a first come, first served basis. Students are encouraged to apply for Work-Study, as this will enable the Department to hire more students. Thank you!
