UW Oshkosh Guest Researcher Computer User Agreement

Using the computer equipment & printing in Polk Library is a privilege. By applying for this computer password and logon you have read and will follow the following conditions:

- 1) You agree to conform to copyright laws.
- 2) You agree to abide by the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh's Statement of Acceptable Use of Computing Resources. An example of inappropriate and prohibited use of library computing facilities is intentionally creating, displaying, printing, or transmitting information which violates the sexual harassment policy of the university.
- 3) You agree to conform to University of Wisconsin Oshkosh licensing agreements with commercial vendors of information.
- 4) You agree to limit, or discontinue, use of library research computers if it interferes with currently enrolled UW Oshkosh students, faculty and staff research needs.
- 5) You acknowledge that questions about this agreement or the policy should be referred to Laura J. Knaapen, Director of Academic Computing, Dempsey 306A, 920-424-2368.
- 6) You agree not to share your username and password with another person.

The Director or her designee will normally respond to requests within 72 hours.

Account usernames & passwords will be sent to you in separate emails, or you may come to the Help Desk to pick up the account information. The account comes with an expiration date.
