STUDY AT UW OSHKOSH

The Intensive English Program (IEP) offers a comprehensive curriculum focused on preparing international and domestic (non-native English-speaking) students in Academic English for study at the undergraduate or graduate level. Anticipate a challenging yet realistic workload.

Enter UWO through the IEP, then:

- complete your degree at UWO;
- transition into classes as an exchange or visiting student;
- transfer to another U.S. university or an English-taught program in your country.

Academic Conversation Partners are an integral part of our IEP. IEP students meet with UWO students to practice conversation in a relaxed, friendly, social environment.

UWO Conditional admission is offered to eligible applicants prior to entry into the IEP.

A quiet, safe, user-friendly campus in beautiful Wisconsin.

Live a university life!

- ◇ Full access to university facilities and services, including the Recreation Center, library, computer labs, sports facilities, and more.
- ◇ Integrated living arrangements, with housing in university residence halls.

The IEP offers:

- ◇ Classes averaging 6–8 students;
- ◇ 18 hour/week student-centered learning environment;
- ◇ Integrated English skills development at multiple levels;
- ◇ Experienced instructors with advanced degrees in TESOL or a related field;
- ◇ Free English Language tutoring;
- ◇ Free Writing Center support;
- ◇ Fully-equipped classrooms.
