I. COURSE DESCRIPTION

UNIVERSITY BULLETIN DESCRIPTION

This course is a continuation of the SW709 Foundation Field and seminar course and facilitates student application of classroom learning in a social service agency. Students will demonstrate their practice competency in all nine CSWE areas of social work practice competency. In this internship students will gain a generalist perspective of social work practice, enhance their professional social work skills, and prepare to move into an advanced area of practice concentration. This course prepares students to apply practice theories, models, and ethical principles in a specific social service delivery system. Emphasis is placed on promoting competence through strength-based, culturally competent, generalist practice. Four credits. Prerequisite: Completion of SW709.

II. TEXTS

V. COURSE STRUCTURE AND FORMAT

This course has two components. The first component is the agency-based Internship, which requires students to intern in one agency for two semesters (spring and summer). Students will complete 18 hours a week over a period of 8 weeks during the summer semester. The second component is the Field seminar, which occurs on campus for one hour each week. Students will complete a total of 144 internship hours at the agency and 18 hours in seminar for a total of 162 hours. Students evaluate themselves and are evaluated by the agency Field supervisor and the Field instructor regarding their social work practice competency. Students should be able to demonstrate that they are competent in all areas by the end of the summer semester. Students must complete all 144 field hours in the agency and will be required to make up any hours missed in the seminar.

VI. COURSE POLICIES

All Field Internship policies are noted in the Field Manual and students are responsible to be familiar with these expectations.

As noted above, all required hours must be complete in order to pass the course. Students must demonstrate that they are competent in all practice areas in order to pass the class. Students should be able to demonstrate their ability to work independently with clients and manage a small caseload.

COURSE EXPECTATIONS Written Work

Expectations for written work include writing in non-sexist, non-racist, non-stigmatizing language. While there is no completely perfect way to accomplish this, some useful guidelines follow (Kreider, J. (n.d.). University of Kansas, School of Social Welfare):

- When referring to an unknown person of either gender - instead use s/he; her/him or they;
- When referring to ethnic and racial groups, use the language that is presently acceptable to that group;
- When referring to people who have intellectual, cognitive or emotional challenges, are homeless, etc., write in a way that does not stigmatize them. Avoid using terms like “the mentally ill” or “the homeless” or “the disabled” as these terms tend to provide us with a picture of a homogeneous group that is defined by some problem rather than as people who have certain characteristics.
- Use good judgment and become sensitive to the nuances of language.
- Write clearly and concisely as possible. To accomplish this, first write an outline and/or draft, then read over what is written, then edit, and rewrite. Is what is written clear? Is it communicating exactly what is meant?
- Use examples and illustrations to clarify major points made. If uncertain about clarity, ask someone to read the work.
- Always proofread your papers and correct errors.

- Use correct citations and references to support your statements (APA format).
- References are expected for each piece of written work or oral presentation(s).

VII. COURSE ASSIGNMENTS AND STUDENT EVALUATION

SW 710 is graded on a Pass/Fail basis. Students must earn the equivalent of a grade of “B” (85%) or better in order to successfully pass this course. Eighty percent of the grade will be based on performance at the social service agency. The other 20% will be based on seminar activities and required assignments.

Internship Expectations

Students are expected to develop and maintain a regular schedule comprised of 18 hours a week at their field agency over 8 weeks of the summer semester. The Internship schedule should not conflict with other required course work; it should meet agency needs, and allow students, whenever possible, to attend staff meetings and other essential agency functions. Completion of routine agency paperwork and case documentation is also required. To contribute to a passing grade in Foundation Field II, the required number of hours must be completed by the end of the summer semester.

Seminar Expectations

Students will attend a weekly one-hour seminar (8 hours), which provides an opportunity to discuss learning applied in the agency setting, problem-solve challenges, and support peers. Attendance at the seminar is required. Students will be required to make-up any missed seminar hours. Student engagement in the Integrative Seminar will account for 8% of the grade. Students are required to actively participate, complete assignments with a grade of B or better, and demonstrate leadership during discussions. All absences must be made up via additional assignments and not in the Field placement.

Class Participation: Social Work requires professionals to be engaged, assertive and active. Students are expected to read assigned texts, ask questions, answer questions, actively listen to peers and verbally demonstrate their understanding of the course content. Class participation is mandatory and full credit can only be earned by active engagement with peers and the instructor during class sessions. Failure to do this will result in a reduced grade for the seminar requirement.

Student facilitated discussion: each week a student will share an excerpt from their Field log (see appendix A) during the Seminar. Students are responsible to protect client confidentiality and only use the client’s first name.

Process Recordings: Students are required to complete one process recording during the semester (due week 8). This learning tool requires the student to critique an interview with a client by identifying and analyzing thoughts and emotional reactions/responses to the encounter with the client. Social work values and standards are applied as a guideline for this analysis. The Walsh (2002) reading, posted on D2L will inform this assignment. The written process recording should be 4-5 pages in length and include reflection on specific practice competencies, and social work principles of ethical practice. A suggested outline is posted on D2L. (See Appendix B)

Case Presentation: Students will present one case study in seminar class from their case-load. Offering a brief overview of the client demographics, the student will present a summary of the following in a PowerPoint format:

I. Assessment • Why did this individual/group present to the agency and what the client(s) viewed as their challenges?

- Describe the bio/psych/social/cultural/spiritual assessment factors of this case.
- Did you, as the social worker, identify additional needs? If so, what were they?
- What did the client identify as his/her strengths?
- What strengths did you as the social worker identify in this client?
 - Describe in detail how the following theories could be applicable to your client and this case:
 - i. Erikson's theory of psych/social development
 - ii. Attachment theory
 - ii. Person in Environment perspective
 - iv. Cognitive Behavioral Theory

II. Intervention

1. What type of intervention(s) did you offer and how does this relate to evidence-based practice (EVP)?
2. Why did you come to choose this particular intervention?
3. Was the client involved in the process? Why or why not?
4. Discuss the response of your intervention.

III. Outcome and Evaluation a. What was the outcome of this case? b. How does this outcome relate to the EVP research? c. Would you have done anything differently and if so, why? d. Describe in a reflection, how you feel about your ability to work with clients.

Policy Practice Scavenger Hunt: This assignment is a continuation of the activities begun during the spring semester. See D2L for a copy of the assignment expectations for the summer term.

Field Activities/Learning Contract

Students will identify tasks and activities to be undertaken within their field agency that will support meeting the MSW Foundation Year Competencies. At the spring evaluation the Field Instructor and the Field Agency supervisor will work with the student to identify areas for growth and development during the summer session. The Agency Field supervisor will assist the student to update the Student Learning Contract (SLC), for the summer session. The updated SLC is due no later than the end of the 2nd week of Field Internship. A form is provided in the Field Manual.

Field Logs

Students must complete all required hours in the Field in order to pass SW 710. The Field Log provides a mechanism for documenting completed hours and their relationship to practice competency. Field logs must be submitted by the stated due date and include the Field Agency supervisor's signature. Late field logs will result in a reduced grade at the rate of 1% for every day that it is submitted late. Complete Field logs demonstrate maintenance of a regular field schedule, connect experiences and learning opportunities to the practice competencies, and document required field hours (10% of the total grade). Complete Field Logs demonstrate professional practice competency. Students who do not complete all logs will not receive a passing grade in SW 710.

Competent completion of required field hours accounts for 80% of the total grade.

EVALUATION OF FIELD EXPERIENCE

During the final three weeks of the SW 710 Field Internship, the Field Instructor will visit the field Internship agency and meet with the student and the Agency Field supervisor to evaluate the student's practice competency. In preparation for this meeting the student and the Agency Field supervisor will complete the on-line Foundation Field Evaluation provided through a Qualtrics Survey link. A rating of "4": "Student demonstrates competency at the beginning level social work professional", in all areas of practice is required at the end of the course. The results of this evaluation will indicate whether the student has a foundation level of competency at the end of the Foundation curriculum.

Evaluation Rating Scale: 1: Student does not demonstrate competency; student needs to take initiative to improve practice competency. 2: Student demonstrates limited practice competency. 3: Student is developing competency that is approaching that of a beginning level social work professional. 4: Student demonstrates competency at a beginning level social work professional.

GRADES

Student performance in the field will be evaluated using a pass/fail system. All required field components (i.e.: course assignments, field logs, field hours, contracting and evaluation documents) must be completed at the level noted in order for the student to receive a "passing" field grade. A "fail" grade would mean that required field components were not met. This could include: did not get a "B" or better, or did not complete the required field hours, did not complete field Logs satisfactorily, did not engage in contracting or evaluation meeting at the expected professional level and/or evaluation in field demonstrates unsatisfactory progress toward student competencies and the agency field instructor, MSW field coordinator, and faculty field liaison believe that given an additional semester in the field, the student will most likely not be at the level for movement to the advanced year.
