

TITLE IX – SAFE SPACES

Title IX – Safe Space are identified spaces on campus where a student can find a safe and quiet setting to meet virtually with the Title IX Coordinator.

OSHKOSH CAMPUS

Title IX Office in Compliance Risk and Integrity Suite

Located in the Culver Family Welcome Center, Suite 212G and the Oshkosh Campus.

This space offers comfortable seating, a docking station, streaming camera and mic, printer, tactile toys, coloring sheets, crayons and snacks (usually). Connect your phone or PC to make use of the technology. Reservations can be made by emailing TitleIX@UWOSH.edu to set up an appointment. Walk-ins are welcome. Hours are generally 8-4 p.m. Monday through Friday.

FOX CITIES CAMPUS

Reflection Room (1846)

Located at the Fox Cities Campus in room 1846, this Reflection Room is ideal for in-person or virtual meetings on a student's personal PC or phone. This space offers comfortable seating and a quiet space for a mind reset or to meet with the Title IX Coordinator virtually. No reservations needed for this space, but it is first come, first serve.

FOND DU LAC CAMPUS
Reflection Room (A212)

Located in the Art Building in room A212 (at the top of the north stairwell), of the Fond du Lac Campus, this space is ideal for in-person or virtual meetings on a student’s personal PC or phone. This space offers comfortable seating and a quiet space. No reservations needed for this space, but it is first come, first serve. When in the space, please use the sign outside of the door to indicate the room is occupied.

